

WE DESIRE TO THANK YOU

For your esteemed patronage and again remind you of the fact that your home is in great danger of being consumed by fire at this season of the year. Remember how quickly things catch fire this dry, hot weather.

Remember too that flames are harder to control. That your home may be devoured by flames any hour.

Remember also, that we have for you the only safeguard against fire. We represent the fireproof companies of the world.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

VIRGINIA: In the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court for Tazewell County, June 30, 1902.
R. H. Ratliff, Complainant,
vs.
Mame Brown, John A. Brown, William Low, Edward Low, Margaret Low, Jasper Lee Low, George Riley Low, Stella May Low, the last four of whom are infants of John W. Crockett, late Sheriff of Tazewell County, and as such administrators of George Low, dec'd, and Rose Brown, in his own right, and as administrator of Rachel Low, dec'd, Defendants.

The object of this suit is to correct mistake in deed from Geo. Low and Rachel Low to R. H. Ratliff, and to recover of the estate of Rachel Low $108.00 with interest from the 9th of April, 1890, and to subject 1034 acres of land belonging to the estate of Rachel Low to the payment of same.

And it appearing from an affidavit on file in said office that Mame Brown and John A. Brown are non-residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia, it is ordered that they appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order, and do what may be necessary to protect their interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Republican, a weekly newspaper published at Tazewell, Virginia, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the courthouse of this county.

Fatal . . . Imprudence

To neglect to carry an Accident insurance policy. Accident is liable to the most careful, and it is just as well for you to be on the safe side of the fence by having the "wherewithal" to see you through if you are seriously hurt. It doesn't cost much to carry a policy, and a friend in need is a friend indeed about that time.

We write all kinds of good insurance covering loss, health, etc., etc.

There was a splendid rain in this vicinity on Monday night. One or two more rains properly distributed will give our people the best corn crop they ever raised.

The banking room of the Bank of Clinch Valley has been improved by having the metal ceiling painted with aluminum paint and the counters painted a mahogany finish.

Mr. Gratt Crockett, of Graham, Va., is desperately ill with cirrhosis of the liver, which is an incurable malady. His many old friends in the county have heard of his condition with much regret.

From present indications Tazewell county will have the greatest corn crop this year it has ever had. This will certainly be true if there are sufficient rains during the next two or three weeks.

Next Tuesday will be the day for commencing the regular July term of the county court. It is expected that the trial of George and John Jones will be commenced on Wednesday the second day of the term.

Mr. J. Y. Crawford is now preparing for Mr. B. W. Stans for a new building to be erected on the site now occupied by the old Belew building. The old building will be torn away and the new structure built this season.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bank of Clinch Valley, held one day last week, Mr. John W. Crockett was elected president of the bank to succeed Judge S. C. Graham, who declined to accept the position any longer.

Dr. J. T. Cooley has three fine hogs in a pen and every other day he gives them a large shovelful of stone coal, which they eat with a relish. We are told that when hogs eat coal they never have cholera. This is worth knowing and trying.

Bishop Morrison, of Louisville, Ky., will preside over the District Conference which will be held in Burke's Garden next week, commencing next Wednesday, the 23rd inst. It is expected that the Bishop will preach in the Methodist church at this place on Sunday night, the 27th inst.

Messrs. Moss & Crockett shipped from Poundmill last Friday 700 lambs that averaged 84 lbs. They were raised in the Midway neighborhood in this county. The lambs are unusually good this year and the graziers in the Midway neighborhood are among the most successful sheep raisers in this section.

Last week Messrs. Moss & Crockett received from Mr. Henry Acree 341 lambs that averaged 84 lbs. Moss & Greener say this was about the finest lot of lambs, considering the number, they have ever turned out of any man's pastures. Mr. Acree has been improving his flock of sheep until he now has one of the finest flocks in the county.

According to announcement Rev. J. S. French preached at North Tazewell on last Sunday morning and on Sunday night at Tazewell on Sunday night. On both occasions he preached to a large and attentive congregation; and both discourses gave evidence of the preachers continued growth as a pulpit orator. Brother French is held in great esteem by all the people of Tazewell, and will always be cordially received here.

Mrs. Ralph Izard and her two little daughters, Sadie and Theresa, of New York, are visiting Capt. and Mrs. A. J. Tynes on Tazewell Avenue.

The health of the town of Tazewell is now as perfect as can be. Strict sanitary regulations for the balance of the Summer will keep the health all right.

Dr. and Mrs. James O'Keefe are at Mountain Lake. Dr. O'Keefe is attending the Southwestern Royal Arch School which is now in session at that place.

Another party left Tazewell yesterday afternoon for Hunter's Pulaski Alum Springs. It consisted of Misses Eva Painter, Maggie Bowen, Nettie Witten and Dr. J. H. Crockett.

There will be a game of ball played on our grounds Saturday between our home team and the Graham team. Graham has an extra good team this season and it is expected to put up a close and interesting game.

E. D. Shelton, who for the past four months has been working on the "Republican" force, began working for St. Clair Stuart last Friday. "Gene" is a very capable printer, but we hear there are other attractions than the printing business that hold him in our city.

Miss Mary Adair, who had been visiting home-folks at Princeton, W. Va., got back to Tazewell Saturday. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Pansy, and cousin, Miss Besse Beckwith, two of Princeton's most attractive young beings, who will remain for several days as her guests.

Mr. S. A. McMullin, of Carbondale, Pa., was in Tazewell the past week. While here he closed a deal for the sale of 2,000 acres of coal land in McDowell county, W. Va. He and his partners received $100,000 in cash for the 2,000 acres. They still own about 6,000 acres of valuable lands in McDowell. Mr. McMullin became a subscriber to the "Republican" while here.

Among the business men and the public generally, much complaint is being made about the present mail facilities at Tazewell. Under the present arrangement we do not get any mail from the east until about 4 o'clock, p.m., when the train is on time, which is the exception. Our eastern mail, that which comes from east of Lynchburg, arrives at Bluefield about 8 o'clock at night and remains until the next day at 2 o'clock, p.m. We understand that a petition will be sent from Tazewell and other points on the Clinch Valley Division asking an improvement in the mail service along the line. It is to be hoped that the improvement will be made.
